No, the poet does not feel bad when he skins the other leg.

6. What does the poet see every time he climbs a tree?

Every time he climbs a tree, the poet sees swallows, rooftops, TV, fields and farms.

III. Long Answers:

1. List three pairs of rhyming words used in the poem.

Three pairs of rhyming words - tree/knee, bee/me, best/nest.

2. Why do you think the poet has repeated the line, 'Every time I climb a tree'?

The poet has repeated the line, 'Every time I climb a tree' to tell the reader that climbing trees is his hobby and he does it multiple times.

3. Why does the poet feel free every time he climbs a tree?

Every time the poet climbs a tree he feels free because on top of the tree he is by himself and gets to see a lot of new and interesting things.

4. How do we know that the poet thoroughly enjoys climbing trees and does not bother much about the ants or the bees or scraping his knees?

We know that the poet thoroughly enjoys climbing trees and does not bother much about anything else because even after getting hurt each time, he still gets excited by everything he sees from the top of a tree— the swallows, rooftops, TV, fields and farms.

5. Read these lines from the poem and try to write four more lines of your own that rhyme with these lines.

Though climbing may be good for ants

It isn't awfully good for pants

But still it's pretty good for me

Every time I climb a tree.
