

CLASS - II ENGLISH NOTES JULY

3. I Tried to Ride a Skateboard (Poem)

I. Synonyms:

- |                |   |                                    |
|----------------|---|------------------------------------|
| 1. Skate board | - | Wheeled footwear used for gliding. |
| 2. Scraped     | - | Injured.                           |
| 3. Unicycle    | - | A cycle with a single wheel.       |

II. Antonyms :

- |         |   |        |
|---------|---|--------|
| 1. Fall | x | rise.  |
| 2. Lost | x | found. |

III. ERC :

1. "I tried to ride a bicycle
I crashed into a tree"

a. Name the poem and the poet?

The name of the poem is "I Tried to ride a skateboard" and name of the poet is Kenn Nesbitt.

b. When did the child crashed into a tree?

The child crashed into a tree while he was riding a bicycle.

IV. Answer the following:

1. Did the accidents keep the child from trying something new?

Ans. No, the accidents did not keep the child from trying something new.

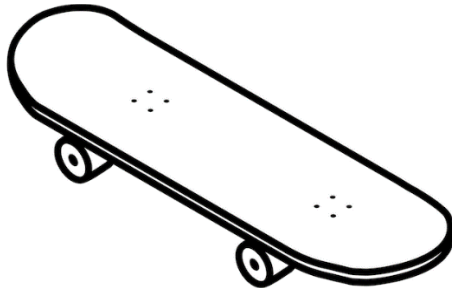

2. Why is the child happy in the wheel chair?

Ans. The Child is happy in the wheel chair because he cannot fall from it.

3. Why do you think the child is on a wheel chair?

Ans. The child is on a wheel chair because he has injured himself from different accidents and cannot walk.

V. Illustration :

I tried to ride a skate board
I fell and scraped my knee.

VI. Mind Map :

