

14th

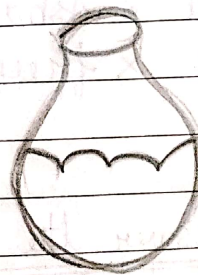

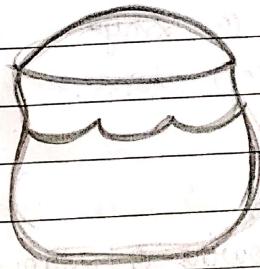

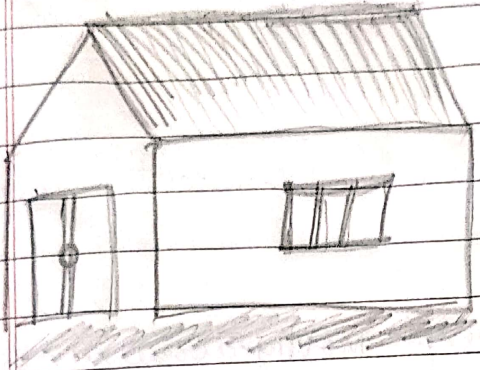

classmate
Date _____
Page _____

The Indian Potter - Poem - July

NOTES

④
I.

Illustration:

II. Key words:

- | | | |
|---------------|------------|--------------|
| 1. potter | 4. shaping | 7. cooking |
| 2. generation | 5. passing | 8. storing |
| 3. skilled | 6. rare | 9. tradition |
| | | 10. creating |

IV Rhyming words:

1. touch - much
2. skill - chill
3. show - flow
4. clay - play
5. rare - care

IV Synonyms:

1. bustling - full of people moving about in a busy way
2. rare - not common.
3. earthen - made of baked clay.
4. heart and stars - with love and affection.
5. cast - modelled

V Antonyms:

1. meet x avoid
2. quick x delayed
3. care x carelessness
4. proud x Ashamed or shy
5. spins x freezes or stops.

c. Answer the following questions with reference to context [ERC]

① Passing his art from old to new.

Q1. Who is "his" in these line?

Ans: The potter.

Q2. What is his art form?

Ans: Making clay pots/pottery.

Q3. What does the phrase "old to new" refer to?

Ans: It refers to generations, passing it from one generation to another.

② Adding his touch, to make them rare.

Q1. What is made "rare" by the potter?

Ans: The pots made by the potter are made rare by his touch.

Q2: How does he make them rare?

Ans: He adds his skills to make them rare.

Q3. What does the word "touch" signify?

Ans: Touch signifies the effort and skills that are put by the potter in all his creativity to make them a masterpiece.

B. Answer the following Questions:

Q1. In which part of the street is the potter working?

Ans: The potter is working in the corner of a bustling street.

Q2. Who else can be seen in the bustling street?

Ans: Vendors and buyers can be seen in the street.

Q3: What are the earthen pots used for?

Ans: The earthen pots are used for cooking, storing and for show.

Q4. Which line in the poem tells that the potter uses his hands to make the pots?

Ans: Stands an Indian potter, with skilled hands, creating pots of all shapes and brands.

Q5. What is the meaning of the phrase 'creates with heart and stars'?

Ans: It means that the potter creates them with love and affection, putting his heart and soul and skills into it.

30/10/25