

D. Answer the following questions

1. Define web browser. Write any two examples of a web browser.

* It is an application or program that allows you to access the information available on the web. Microsoft edge and Opera are two examples of a web browser.

2. List the basic requirement of hardware and software for an internet connection.

* Modem, internet connection, telephone line, web browser are the basic requirement for internet connection.

3. Define URL

* Each website is identified by its unique address which is called uniform Resource locator (URL).

4. Define World wide web

* World wide web refers to the network of websites that contains information in the form of text, pictures, animation and videos.

E. Competency - based question:

* Kishore is searching for some information for his Social Studies project on Microsoft Bing while reading the pages, he encounters some words whose meaning are unknown to him. He wants to refer to the dictionary in the same window without accessing other websites. which option should he choose?

*

Side bar

3. Introduction to Canva

PAGE No.

DATE: / /

Answer the following:

1. What is Canva?

* Canva is a powerful free-to-use online graphic design tool to work on photo editing, design layout, presentation, posters, videos and more on an easy-to-use platform.

2. What is a design category?

* In Canva, design categories refer to the different types of templates and tools available for creating a wide range of content. These categories help users quickly find the right format and design style for their specific needs.

Some common design categories available in Canva are visual documents, social media content and print materials.

3. What is the purpose of using the elements tool in Canva, and name two types of elements you can add to make your presentation more interesting?

* The Elements tool in Canva is used to add graphics, stickers, lines and shapes to a presentation to make it more visually appealing and engaging. Two types of elements you can add are stickers and shapes.

4. what is Magic write in Canva?

It is an AI tool in Canva's Assistant that suggests content ideas when you type 5 or more words.