

Poem 1:- From a Railway Carriage
Robert Louis Stevenson

Illustration:-

Keywords:-

1. compare
2. movement
3. fairies
4. witches
5. battle
6. troop
7. tramp
8. gaze
9. bridge
10. meadow

II Synonyms:

1. meadows - a field covered in grass.
2. clambers - climb or walk with difficulty
3. scrambles - to use quickly using your hands
4. brambles - (here) blueberries
5. tramp - (here) homeless person.
6. lumping - carry something with difficulty

III Antonyms:

1. fairies x witches
2. moving x motionless
3. pass x halt
4. appear x disappear
5. extreme x normal

IV Singular - Plural

1. fairy - fairies
2. daisy - daisies
3. troop - troops

4. hero - heroes

5. witch - witches

V Homophones:-

1. witch - which

2. sight - site

3. eyes - ice

4. clink - claim

5. plain - plane

VI Answer the following questions with reference to context [ERC]

'And here is a mill and there is a river:
Each a glimpse and gone forever!'

1. From where does the poet catch the glimpse?

Ans:- The poet catches the glimpse from a moving train.

2. What is meant by 'Each a glimpse and gone forever'?

Ans:- 'Each a glimpse and gone forever' means that each scene appears for a second then disappears forever.

VII Answer the following questions:

1. What does the poet compare the movement of the sights in the poem to?

Ans:- The poet compares the movement of the sights to fairies, witches and battle troops.

2. What does the tramp do?

Ans:- The tramp stands and gazes at the passing train.

3. Name any four scenes that the speaker observes during his journey.

Ans:- The speaker observes bridges and houses, horses and cattle in the meadows, hills and plains and painted stations.

4. What is the meaning of the phrase 'a wink of an eye'?

Ans:- The phrase 'a wink of an eye' means extremely fast.

Khan