

Oh, what a Sports Day! (poem) III STAND ARD

13/12/25

Notes

January Month

I Illustration:-

II Key words:-

1. event

2. swinging

3. hopping

4. miniature

5. hurdles

6. hockey

7. sports

8. track

9. relay

10. sunbird.

III Synonyms:-

1. Unique - one of a kind.

2. fascinating - interesting.

3. relent - become less serious.

4. miniature - Very small.

IV Antonyms:-

1. begin x end.

2. set x rise.

3. high x low.

4. tiny x big.

V Rhyming words:-

1. relay - way
2. fax - star
3. track - snack
4. event - relent

VI ERC:-

1. "That this special day would come around again,
And they would all gather, as good friends,
with no pain."

a) Which special day is the speaker talking about?

Ans:- The speaker is talking about the Sports Day of animals.

b) Why did the animals want to gather again?

Ans:- The animals wanted to gather again because they had a lot of fun in the event.

VII Answer the following:-

1. Name three activities that the animals enjoyed in the field.

Ans:- The animals enjoyed swinging, playing hockey, racing, hopping and building miniature tracks.

2. What was the most fascinating sport played in the field? Why was it fascinating?

Ans:- The most fascinating sport in the field was the miniature track made by the ants. It was fascinating because it had hurdles to compete with and a finish line with a snack.

3. Who gathered to watch the animals' fun day in the field?

Ans:- Animals and birds of all kinds and sizes gathered to watch the animals' fun day in the field.

4. What did the animals hope for at the end of the poem?

Ans:- The animals hoped to see a fun-filled sports even again.

Ans
13/11/20