

08/4/26

April Month

Everyday things (poem)

- Jean Ayer.

I. Illustration:-

II. Key words:-

1. millionaires.

2. Presidents

3. underclothes

4. magazine

5. handkerchief

6. stockings

7. weary

8. newspaper

9. Vegetables.

10. breakfast.

III Synonyms:-

1. ill - sick
2. rest - relax
3. weary - tired.

IV Antonyms:-

1. clear x dirty.
2. better x worse
3. rich x poor.

V Rhyming words:-

1. hair - fair
2. tea - see
3. nose - rose
4. head - red
5. meat - eat.

VI ERC:-

1. "Millionaires, presidents - even kings
Can't get along without everyday things."

a) Who are mentioned in these lines?

⇒ Millionaires, presidents and kings.

b) What does "everyday things" mean?

⇒ Things we use daily like food, clothes, water etc.

2. "While your drink for breakfast would probably be milk or chocolate, coffee (or) tea."

a) What are the drinks mentioned?

⇒ Milk, chocolate drink, coffee and tea.

b) When are these drinks taken?

⇒ At breakfast.

3. "If you wanted to read, you'd be sure to look
At newspaper, magazine (or) a book."

a) What can you read?

⇒ Newspaper, magazine or a book.

b) Why do we read?

→ To gain knowledge and information.

VII Answer the following:

1. Why is it said that millionaires, presidents and kings are like ordinary people?

→ Because they also need everyday things like food, clothes, sleep and medicine just like ordinary people.

2. Name a few more things that both rich and ordinary people do.

→ They eat food, drink water, sleep, read books and take care of their health.

8/22/12