

Date : April-6/4/2026

Class : VII

Topic : Create with Krita

Month : April 2026

Notes of Lesson

I. Answer the following questions:

1. What does the Gradient tool do?

Ans. Gradient tool is used to create a gradual blend between two or more colors in a shape.

2. What is a layer in Krita?

Ans. A layer is an individual transparent sheet used to separate elements of an image.

3. What is the difference between a paint layer and a vector layer?

Ans. Paint layers use pixels while vector layers use mathematical paths.

4. Why are layers helpful while painting digitally?

Ans. Layers are helpful while painting digitally in Krita because
i) It is easy to fix mistakes

2. Keep things Organised
 3. Try ideas without fear
 4. Better Colouring and Shading of Shapes is possible
 5. We Can move parts easily for rotating (or) resizing shape
 6. Also we can use special effects like filters and transition
5. Why do artists use stamp Brushes in Krita?

Ans.

Artists use stamp Brushes in Krita to quickly place elements or textures in our creation.

Competency based questions:

1. You are drawing a night Scene in Krita. You want to keep the sky, moon, stars on separate parts so they don't mix. Which feature will help you do this?

Ans.

Layer is the feature used to keep the moon, stars on separate part in a night Scene.