

Books for - At least One Library.

Month - June

I. Illustration:

II. Key words:

- | | |
|----------------|----------------|
| 1. perishes. | 6. Village |
| 2. destruction | 7. treasure |
| 3. accompany.. | 8. billionaire |
| 4. blinking | 9. experience |
| 5. library | 10. knowledge |

III. Synonyms:

1. perishes - gets destroyed.
2. accompany - to go with someone.
3. treasure - something very valuable or precious.
4. blinking - closing and opening the eyes quickly.
5. experience - knowledge or skill gained by doing (or) seeing something.

IV. Antonyms:

1. destruction $\times$ construction
2. greet $\times$ ignore
3. often $\times$ rarely
4. promise $\times$ refuse
5. wealth $\times$ poverty

V. Homophones:

1. below - bellow
2. floor - flour
3. to - too
4. need - knead
5. there - their

ERC:

VI

①

Yes, I know

If I have wings

I will see beautiful places.

I will meet great people.

I will search for hidden treasures.

Q1. What does the speaker wish for in the poem?

Ans: The speaker wishes to have wings so that they can fly in the sky.

Q2. What will the speaker do if they have wings?

Ans: The speaker will fly in the vast sky, see beautiful places, meet great people, and search for hidden treasures.

Q3. What do "hidden treasure" mean in the lesson?

Ans: "Hidden treasure" means discovering new and valuable things like knowledge, experiences, (or) exciting places.

②

respect, Dronacharya. Arjuna would always say how he gave respect, Dronacharya. When asked why it seems Arjuna replied, In this life, everything perishes over a period of time. Whether it be diamond, beauty, gold or even land. Only one thing withstands this destruction. It is knowledge. The more you give, the more you get."

Q1. Why did Arjuna respect his teacher Dronacharya?

Ans: Arjuna respected his teacher because he valued knowledge and understood its importance in life.

Q2. What does Arjuna say about things in life?

Ans: Arjuna says that everything in life perishes over time, whether it is wealth, beauty or land.

Q3: What is the only thing that does not get destroyed?

Ans: Knowledge is the only thing that withstands destruction and it increases when shared.

VII. Answer the following questions:

Q1. Why did the narrator ask her grandfather that why teachers should be respected?

Ans: Because she saw how much respect people gave her grandfather and was curious to know why teachers were held in such high regard.

Q2. What was the story about Arjuna that grandfather told the narrator?

Ans: He said Arjuna respected his teacher Dronacharya greatly. When asked why, Arjuna replied that everything perishes over time except knowledge, which grows the more you share it.

Q3. What impression did the first library leave on the narrator?

Ans: It left a deep impression - She loved the calm environment, the neat arrangement of books and developed a habit of reading and learning from there.

Q 4. Why did the narrator's poem impress her grandfather?

Ans: Because she completed the poem in her own creative way, showing her deep love for reading and books.

Q 5. What does richness of experience mean?

Ans: It means having gained wisdom and knowledge through years of living working and learning even if one does not have a lot of money.

2/2/2024