

Month: JULY

CLASS: VI

THEME - C - GOVERNANCE AND DEMOCRACY

TOPIC - FAMILY AND COMMUNITY

I ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1 Define a joint family?

* A Joint Family has many generations living together.

* It includes grand Parents, Parents, Uncles, aunts and Cousins.

2 Name the values on which family relationship based

Family relationship are based on Love, care, Co-operation and interdependence

3. List the responsibilities of Parents.

Parents raise children to be happy, help them become responsible members of society, provide guidance, give support and teach important values.

4. Mention the values children learn by participating in household activities?
Children learn Teamwork, Responsibility, and Co-operation.

5. State the ways in which communities support each other?
Communities support ^{each} one another through agricultural practices and by sharing resources.

MONTH: JULY

CLASS: VI

THEME - E ECONOMIC LIFE AROUND US

Topic - THE 'VALUE OF WORK

ANSWER THE FOLLOWING:

1. Define Value Addition?

Value addition is the process of adding value at each stage of transforming something (resource or material) into another form during the economic activity.

2. Distinguish between economic and non economic activities?

Economic activity

* Economic activities involve the exchange of money.

Non-Economic Activity

Non economic activities don't involve the exchange of money.

3. Explain the Main Purpose of the Shanti Sahyog Centre for Women.

The Main Purpose of the Scheme is to empower women by providing

11. legal Support, counselling, rehabilitation and vocational training.

4. Identify the Primary Focus and aim of the Van Mahotsav Initiative?

Van Mahotsav - is another example of community participation, aimed at raising awareness about the importance of trees and forest conservation. This Initiative encourages people to come together for a greener environment.

5. Where do we commonly see free Medical treatment being provided to needy individuals?

We see free Medical treatment in many places such as temples, gurdwaras, mosques and churches.