

August Month

27/7/21

Poem - 6 :- The Land of storybooks

I Illustration:-

II Key words:-

1. crawl

2. track

3. solitudes

4. brink

5. scout

6. prowled

7. firelit

8. soaring

9. hunter

10. Woods

III Synonyms:-

1. proud - happy.
2. Roar - loud sound.
3. Camp - stay.

IV Antonyms:-

1. near x far.
2. along x away.
3. soft x hard.

V Rhyming words:-

1. bit - sit.
2. crawl - wall.
3. brink - drink.
4. bed - head.
5. books - looks.

VI ERC:-

1. "Now, with my little gun, I crawl.
 All in the dark along the wall."

a) What does the child carry while crawling?

⇒ The child carries a little toy gun while pretending to be a hunter.

b) Where does the child crawl?

⇒ The child crawls quietly along the wall in the dark.

2. "There in the night, where none can spy,
 All in my hunter's camp I lie."

a) Where does the child imagine lying?

⇒ The child imagines lying safely in a hunter's camp at night.

b) Why does the child say "where none can spy"?

⇒ The child imagines being hidden where no one can see or find him.

VII Answer the following:-

1. What do the parents do when the lamp is lit?

Ans:- The parents sit around the fire, talk and sing happily.

2. Where does the child imagine lying at night?

Ans:- The child imagines lying in a hunter's camp.

3. What do the hills and woods represent?

Ans:- The hills and woods represents the child's wonderful imaginary world.

4. What does the child do before going to bed?

Ans:- The child returns home in his imagination and goes to bed happily.

5. What is the main idea of the poem?

Ans:- The poem shows that a child's imagination can turn ordinary things into exciting adventures.