Month - October

STD: I

1. The Swing

I D-words

1. swing
2. blue
3. thing
4. child
5. rivers
6. trees
7. cattle
8. garden
9. green
10. air

II Rhyming words

1. swing - thing
2. wall - all
3. brown - down

III ERC

1. "Up in the air and over the wall
Till I can see so wide".

a) When is the child able to see the world so wide?

Ans: When she goes up in the sky.

2. Who is the poet of the poem?

Ans: The poet of the poem is Robert Louis Stevenson.

IV. Answer the following:

1. What is the pleasantest thing a child can ever do?

Ans: Going up in the sky is the pleasantest thing a child can ever do.

2. Name any two things the child sees from the swing.

Ans: Rivers and trees.

Checked
Sh
6/10

K. Kantiga
3.1.26.

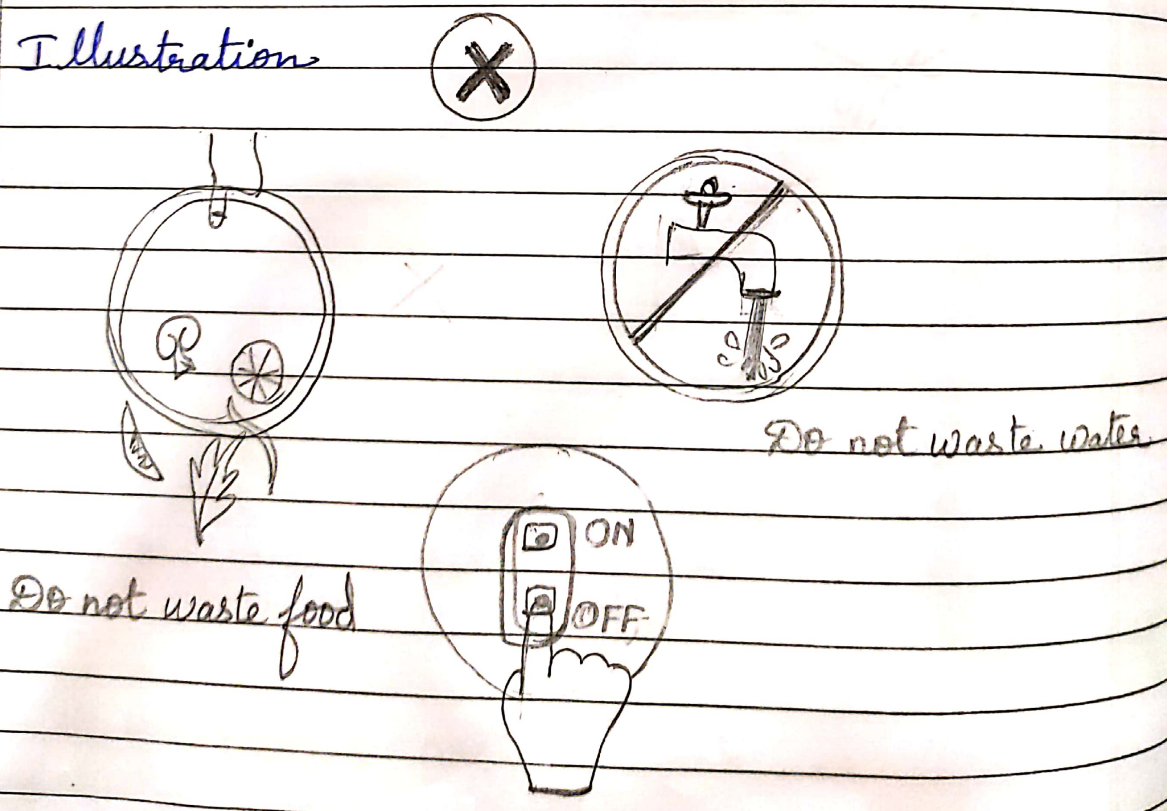

Month - October

2. Do Not Waste

I Dictation words

1. Ashu
2. naughty
3. Careless
4. electricity
5. tired
6. Promise
7. waste
8. Share
9. lesson
10. misuse

II Illustrations

Do not waste food

Do not waste water

Do not waste electricity

III Synonyms:

1. naughty - Playful
2. misuse - use wrongly
3. upset - Unhappy

IV Antonyms

1. Careless x Careful
2. On x off
3. Difficult x easy

V Frame sentences by using the given words

1. Waste - Do not waste food
2. promise - I promised To Save water

VI ERC

Ashu came home tired from school. He switched on the lights and fans and they did not work!

a) Who came home tired?

Ans Ashu came home tired.

b) Did the lights and fans work?

No, the lights and fans did not work

VII Answer the following

1) Why did Ashu cry?

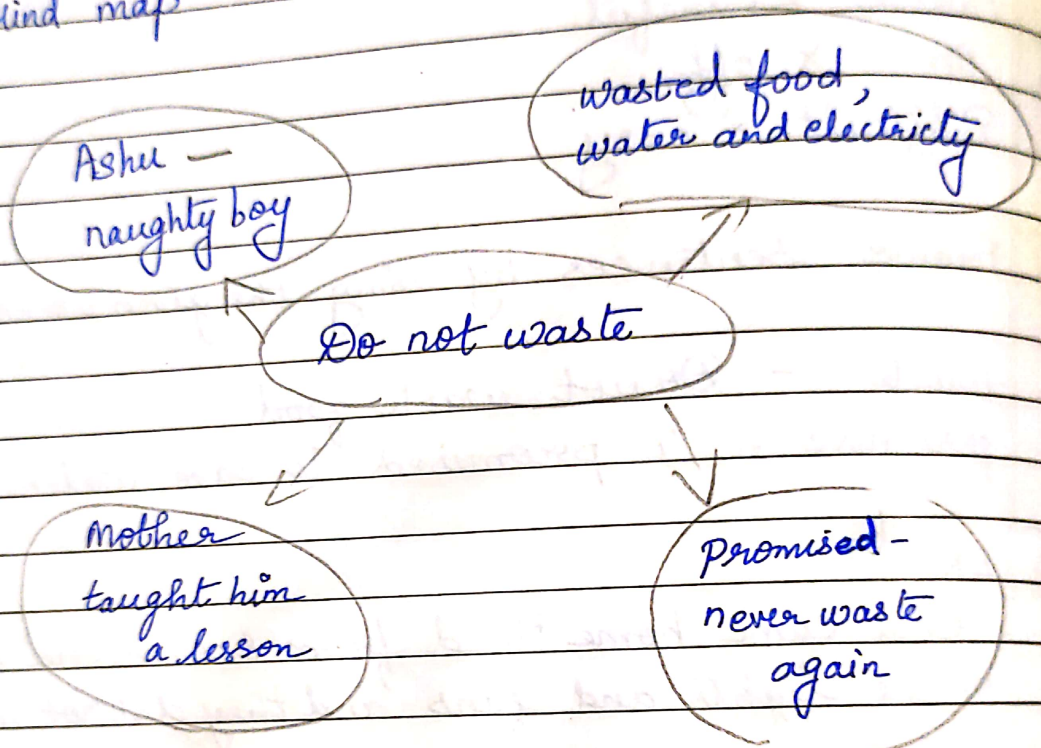

Ashu cried because he could not eat anything without water..

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

2. What did Ashu promise his mother?

Ans Ashu promised his mother that he would never waste anything again.

VIII Mind map

Checked
Ds
5/10

K. Kaarthiga
3/10/20.